

2017 TOP 100

Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

2017 TOP 100

Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

In 2017, corporations, non-governmental organizations, governments and civilians are joining together in the fight against human trafficking and modern slavery within global supply chains. In recognition of these outstanding individuals leading the charge, we are pleased to announce the 2017 Top 100 Human Trafficking and Slavery Influence Leaders List.

Congratulations and thank you to the Top 100 Influence Leaders for your outstanding contributions to awareness, education, regulation and supply chain excellence in the human trafficking and modern slavery context.

BACKGROUND

The Top 100 Human Trafficking and Slavery Influence Leaders List was independently curated by Lucas Taylor (University of Notre Dame MBA) of LDT Consulting, on behalf of Assent Compliance. Individuals considered for the list included members of the corporate sector, non-governmental organizations, government bodies, consultancy firms, media groups and service providers.

MANY VARIABLES WERE TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT IN THE RANKING OF THE 2017 TOP 100 LIST, INCLUDING:

- » Klout score
- » Trade show & industry group participation (online & offline)
- » Publications, media citations & participation
- » Organization size
- » Social media outreach & advocacy
- » Involvement in the regulatory landscape

TOP 100 Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

THIS YEAR'S TOP 100 LIST INCLUDES DIVERSE INFLUENCERS WHO:

- » Made a significant, positive impact to human trafficking and modern slavery compliance in 2016-2017
- » Were directly involved in the management or execution of a human trafficking and modern slavery compliance program in 2016-2017
- » Are leaders in their space or industry
- » Are working tirelessly to raise awareness and combat human trafficking and modern slavery across global supply chains
- » Have contributed to the development and implementation of human trafficking and modern slavery laws, and/or provide support to companies in scope of these regulations

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

LUCAS TAYLOR, MBA
LDT Consulting

Lucas has focused his career on providing strategic insights and business intelligence solutions to propel private sector organizations toward success. He has partnered with all manner of companies, from Fortune 500s to start-up ventures, to assist them in determining where their strategic advantages lie through research, data analysis and the development of strong implementation frameworks for continued growth. His innate curiosity and commitment to sound decision making helps clients excel in their professional endeavors and research projects.

TOP 100 Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

ADITI WANCHOO

SENIOR MANAGER OF DEVELOPMENT PARTNERSHIPS,
SOCIAL & ENVIRONMENTAL AFFAIRS, ASIA PACIFIC

Adidas

As Senior Manager of Development Partnerships, Social & Environmental Affairs, Asia Pacific, for the Adidas Group, Aditi Wanchoo is responsible for developing a modern slavery outreach program and eliminating human trafficking from the company's supply chain. Over the past 14 years, Ms. Wanchoo has worked with leading nonprofit organizations such as Greenpeace and Leonard Cheshire International.

SHAWN MACDONALD

CEO

Verité

Shawn MacDonald is the CEO of Verité, a civil society organization that promotes workers' rights in global supply chains through research, consulting, training, assessments and policy advocacy. He has broad experience in labor rights, corporate social responsibility, social entrepreneurship, workplace health and multi-sector partnerships, and works to bring new approaches to the urgent problem of forced labor.

LUIS C. DEBACA

FORMER DIRECTOR, SEX OFFENDER SENTENCING,
MONITORING, APPREHENSION, REGISTRATION, AND TRACKING (SMART) OFFICE

U.S. Department of Justice

Luis C. deBaca is a lawyer and diplomat who formerly served as the Director of the Department of Justice SMART Office. Prior to this, he acted as Ambassador-at-Large to Monitor and Combat Trafficking in Persons. From 2000 to 2007, Mr. C. deBaca tried more than 100 cases as chief counsel of the DOJ's Human Trafficking Prosecution Unit. He was also instrumental in developing the survivor-centered approach to combating modern slavery, which means that former slaves are assisted in establishing normal lives, rather than deported or otherwise treated as criminals.

TOP 100 Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

KEVIN HYLAND

COMMISSIONER

UK Anti-Slavery Commission

Since 2015, Kevin Hyland has served as the UK's first Independent Anti-Slavery Commissioner. In this role, he leads efforts to tackle slavery and human trafficking by promoting best practices among companies, NGOs and other groups. He was formerly head of the London Metropolitan Police Service's Human Trafficking Unit, where he was involved in conducting multi-national and bi-lateral investigations and prosecutions involving organized crime groups and human trafficking.

RUCHIRA GUPTA

FOUNDER

Apne Aap Women Worldwide

Based in India, journalist and activist Ruchira Gupta founded Apne Aap Women Worldwide, a grassroots organization dedicated to ending sex trafficking and empowering at-risk girls and women. Through her work, she has highlighted the link between prostitution laws and trafficking, and her activism has been recognized by various nations, government leaders and organizations around the world.

VAL FLOY

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Anti-Slavery International

Anti-Slavery International is one of the world's oldest human rights charitable organizations and Val Floy currently serves as its Chief Operating Officer. In her roles across a number of organizations that deal with anti-slavery, trafficking, and child homelessness, Ms. Floy has been an integral part of building up organizational capabilities for those needing to expand their reach and influence.

TOP 100 Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

THERESA FLORES

FOUNDER

Save Our Adolescents from Prostitution (S.O.A.P.)

Herself a survivor of human trafficking, Theresa Flores works to educate people on the realities of human trafficking. She founded Save Our Adolescents from Prostitution (S.O.A.P.), a nonprofit that aims to prevent the trafficking of youths, and has received numerous awards for her work, including Ohio's Courage Award and Soroptimist International's Ruby Award. In 2015, the Michigan Senate Bill was amended to include Theresa Flores' Law, which raises the statute of limitations on human trafficking from six to 25 years.

JOHN KING

FOUNDER

Give Them a Voice

John King's work as a poet, author, activist and speaker routinely serves as a voice for those affected by human trafficking. His personal story drives him to confront sexual abuse and human trafficking in a positive manner, and in 2015, he founded Give Them a Voice, an inclusive organization that focuses on helping men and boys who have been victimized by human trafficking.

BRENDA SCHULTZ

DIRECTOR OF RESPONSIBLE BUSINESS

Carlson Rezidor Hotel Group

As Director of Responsible Business at Carlson Rezidor Hotel Group, Brenda Schultz drives the creation and implementation of the company's Responsible Business strategy. Ms. Schultz champions anti-trafficking initiatives within Carlson Rezidor, including the creation of robust human trafficking awareness training for employees, and partnering with ECPAT-USA to create hotel signage that features the National Human Trafficking Hotline as a resource for reporting suspected cases of trafficking and for survivors to reach out for life-saving services.

TOP 100 Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

ANDREW FORREST

CO-FOUNDER

Walk Free Foundation

Andrew Forrest is Co-Founder of the Walk Free Foundation, an organization created to bring attention to contemporary slavery and human trafficking in supply chains around the globe. The foundation, created in collaboration with his wife, Nicola Forrest, and their daughter, is responsible for the rise of the Modern Slavery Index, among other achievements. Walk Free is soon to relaunch under a new name, Freedom United.

Who Else Made the List?

11 | ALEXANDRA FIELD INTERNATIONAL CORRESPONDENT CNN

Alexandra Field is an International Correspondent for CNN based at the network's Asia-Pacific headquarters in Hong Kong. She reports extensively throughout the Asia-Pacific region and routinely sheds light on the ills caused by the region's human trafficking industry, including the ongoing fight for anti-trafficking legislation in Hong Kong and the smuggling of brides across the border between Vietnam and China.

12 | TAMARA BOX MANAGING PARTNER, EUROPE AND THE MIDDLE EAST Reed Smith LLP

Tamara Box is an internationally-recognized expert in financial structuring and strategic financial advice. She currently serves as the Managing Partner for Europe and the Middle East and Head of Structured Finance at Reed Smith LLP. Additionally, she helped the firm outline its formal commitment to ensuring Reed Smith and its business partners in no way contribute to or benefit from modern slavery and human trafficking.

TOP 100 Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

13 | SYLVIA YU FRIEDMAN JOURNALIST

Based in Asia, Sylvia Yu is an award-winning journalist and writer specializing in human trafficking. She's the author of Silenced No More: Voices of 'Comfort Women' (2015) and Heart and Soul: The Life Story of Pastor Augustus Chao (2002). As a philanthropy advisor, she has managed and directed funds to nonprofit organizations in Asia to fight human trafficking and HIV/AIDS, and to support migrants and North Korea aid efforts since 2005.

14 | JOHN VANEK CONSULTANT AND AUTHOR U.S. Department of Health

John Vanek is a speaker, author and consultant focusing on the collaborative response to human trafficking. Mr. Vanek is the author of The Essential Abolitionist: What You Need to Know About Human Trafficking & Modern Slavery. In January 2017, the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services selected Mr. Vanek to serve on its National Advisory Committee on the Sex Trafficking of Children and Youth in the United States.

15 | ASHTON KUTCHER CO-FOUNDER Thorn

In addition to his work as an actor and entrepreneur, Ashton Kutcher engages heavily in philanthropy efforts that help victims of trafficking all over the world. He is the co-founder of Thorn, an organization that builds software to combat the trafficking of children. In 2017, Mr. Kutcher testified at a U.S. Senate Foreign Relations Committee hearing, where he told stories about the trafficking survivors he has met and emphasized that technology is the key to bringing modern slavery to an end.

16 | LUNA LEE HUMAN RIGHTS LEADER Eileen Fisher

As Human Rights Leader and a member of the Social Consciousness Team for women's clothing designer Eileen Fisher, Luna Lee supports the company's human rights work in its supply chain. In her role, Ms. Lee has helped the company become a leader in fighting human trafficking by expanding the company's human rights involvement through innovative programs. Ms. Lee also has an extensive volunteer background with the YWCA, and champions for living wages worldwide.

17 | CHRIS WHITE PRINCIPAL PROGRAM MANAGER Microsoft

Chris White is a Principal Program Manager and Partner at Microsoft working on special projects. Prior to joining Microsoft, Mr. White was a Program Manager developing advanced technologies for data science and leading President Obama's Big Data Initiative at DARPA. In recognition of this work, he received the Presidential Award for Extraordinary Efforts to Combat Trafficking in Persons, the Secretary of Defense Medal for Outstanding Public Service, a Department of Treasury Intelligence and Analysis medallion and the Department of Defense Joint Meritorious Unit Award.

TOP 100 Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

18 | MALEA OTRANTO END TRAFFICKING FELLOW UNICEF

Malea Otranto is a passionate human rights advocate who has dedicated her life and career to ending human trafficking. In her role as an End Trafficking Fellow at UNICEF, she has helped to educate more than 16,000 constituents across the U.S. on human trafficking and human rights. She also has experience directly assisting survivors of human trafficking through advocacy, emotional support, crisis response and emergency extraction coordination.

involved in sex work and their children in the brothels of Old Delhi's red-light district. She has also worked with survivors of sex trafficking with Saving Innocence in Los Angeles, California.

19 | MICHAEL LITTENBERG PARTNER Ropes & Gray LLP

Michael Littenberg specializes in corporate finance and ongoing securities law compliance. As a part of his practice, Mr. Littenberg advises on supply chain compliance, responsible sourcing and corporate social responsibility. Mr. Littenberg is a regular contributor both to online corporate social responsibility-related publications and webinars, and often shares his expertise at industry conferences and events.

20 | SARAH GODOY POLICY ASSOCIATE National Center for Youth Law

Sarah Godoy served as the Lead Researcher and Content Manager for the May 2016 report by UCLA's Luskin School of Public Affairs piece, "Shedding Light on Sex Trafficking". While pursuing her master's degree in social welfare, she worked with the NGO Kat-Katha to serve women

Twenties

21 | MARINA COLBY DEMOCRACY FELLOW U.S. Agency for International Development

Marina Colby is a human rights lawyer and international development professional working to advance inclusive and sustainable development practices and initiatives. Most recently, Ms. Colby served as a Democracy Fellow at the United States Agency for International Development (USAID), where she advanced the Agency's Counter-Trafficking in Persons (C-TIP) Policy and labor-related programming and policies across development sectors around the world. This work included the promotion of the UN Sustainable Development Goals.

22 | ANNA SMITH CO-FOUNDER Restore One

Along with her husband Chris, Anna Smith founded Restore One, an organization that offers faith-based residential recovery programs, free of cost, to American boys who are survivors of domestic minor sex trafficking. Ms. Smith holds a master's degree in social work and collaborates with leading trauma experts to provide safe home care and advocacy for survivors.

TOP 100 Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

23 | KAREEM KYZIA SENIOR RESEARCH DIRECTOR NORC at the University of Chicago

Kareem Kysia is a Senior Research Director at NORC at the University of Chicago. He is an expert on cross-cultural survey design, international monitoring and evaluation, survey design and data management on international projects. Mr. Kysia's work focuses on data collection for hidden and hard-to-reach populations, as well as research on countering human trafficking and forced labor issues.

is designed to help law enforcement officers and others perform online investigations to hunt down human traffickers. Regarding the program, Mr. Shen was quoted as saying, "Our goal is to understand the footprint of human trafficking in online spaces, whether that be the dark web or the open web."

24 | IAN URBINA INVESTIGATIVE REPORTER The New York Times

Ian Urbina is an investigative reporter based in Washington. His most recent series, "The Outlaw Ocean", chronicles a diversity of crimes offshore, including sea slavery, intentional dumping, illegal fishing, ship theft, gun running, stranding of crews and the killing of stow-aways. Mr. Urbina has also written extensively on criminal justice issues, including stories about the use of prisoners for pharmaceutical experiments, immigrant detainees working unpaid and solitary confinement in immigration detention facilities.

26 | BEN TAUB STAFF WRITER The New Yorker

Ben Taub is a staff writer at The New Yorker. He has written for the magazine about such diverse topics as jihadi recruitment in Europe, battlefield medicine and human trafficking along the trans-Saharan migration routes from Nigeria to Italy. In 2017, Mr. Taub's work on Syria was short-listed for a National Magazine Award and won the Livingston Award for International Reporting, the Robert F. Kennedy Award for International Print reporting and the Overseas Press Club Award for Investigative Reporting.

25 | WADE SHEN PROGRAM MANAGER Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA)

Wade Shen joined the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency (DARPA) in 2014 as Program Manager. He was involved in DARPA's recently-developed Memex program, which

27 | LOUISE NICHOLLS CORPORATE HEAD OF HUMAN RIGHTS, FOOD SUSTAINABILITY AND FOOD PACKAGING Marks & Spencer

Louise Nicholls is the Corporate Head of Human Rights, Food Sustainability and Food Packaging at Marks & Spencer, where she has worked for over 20 years. During this time, Ms. Nicholls has led the retailer's ethical trade program, and was part of the small team that developed the company's ground-breaking "Plan A" initiative, a 100-point, five-year plan to address a wide range of environmental and social issues.

TOP 100 Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

28 | MARIA GRAZIA GIAMMARINARO SPECIAL RAPPORTEUR

UN Human Rights Council

An Italian judge and the UN's special rapporteur on trafficking in persons, Maria Grazia Giammarinaro has been a constant presence in the fight against human trafficking. In addition to her anti-trafficking work with the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE) and the European Commission's Directorate-General for Justice, Freedom and Security, she drafted the EU Directive on preventing and combating trafficking in human beings and protecting its survivors.

29 | JANTINE WERDMULLER VON ELGG STRATEGY, POLICY, PARTNERSHIPS AND COMMUNICATIONS MANAGER

Stronger Together

Jantine Wermuller von Elgg has over six years of experience in issues relating to human trafficking and modern slavery. She has worked in the NGO sector, where she was involved in strategy and policy development, and designed and implemented projects in a range of countries, including the UK, Brazil, Slovakia and the U.S. Ms. Wermuller von Elgg also serves as Strategy, Policy, Partnerships and Communications Manager with Stronger Together, a multi-stakeholder initiative tackling modern slavery in supply chains.

Thirties

30 | THOMAS NIEMANN GLOBAL SOCIAL SUSTAINABILITY MANAGER

Ford Motor Company

A retired U.S. Army Lieutenant Colonel, Thomas Niemann is the Global Social Sustainability Manager at the Ford Motor Company. Mr. Niemann is responsible for the Company's Policy Letter 24 regarding Code of Human Rights, Basic Working Conditions and Corporate Responsibility, which includes assessment and compliance, identification of emerging issues (e.g. conflict minerals and human trafficking) and stakeholder engagement.

31 | MAUREEN MCGOUGH POLICY ADVISOR, OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

National Institute of Justice

Maureen McGough serves as Policy Advisor for the Office of the Director at the National Institute of Justice (NIJ). There, she oversees agency resource investments examining human trafficking in the U.S., with a focus on prevalence, identification, investigation, prosecution and survivors' services. Previously, as an attorney and international research partnership specialist at the NIJ, Ms. McGough authored three publications on the issues of modern-day slavery and human trafficking.

TOP 100 Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

32 | NICHOLAS KRISTOF COLUMNIST

The New York Times

Two-time Pulitzer Prize winner Nicholas Kristof has been a columnist for The New York Times since 2001. A graduate of Harvard, he also studied law at Oxford University as a Rhodes Scholar and was a longtime foreign correspondent for The New York Times. He has written extensively about human rights, specifically on the topic of human trafficking, shedding light on some of the industry's shadiest back roads.

(OSF) Fellowship Program. Before becoming an OSF Fellow, Ms. Vandenberg served as a partner at Jenner & Block LLP, where she focused on complex commercial litigation and internal investigations under the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act. She served as a senior member of the firm's Pro Bono Committee.

33 | BASHIR AHMAD GWAKH JOURNALIST AND BROADCASTER

Radio Mashaal

Bashir Ahmad Gwakh is an Afghan journalist currently working as a broadcaster for Radio Mashaal, Radio Free Europe/Radio Liberty (RFE/RL)'s Pashto service. Before joining RFE/RL in 2010, Mr. Gwakh pursued his Master of Communication through the Fulbright Scholarship in the U.S. He started his career in 2002 as an investigative reporter for the Institute for War and Peace Reporting in Kabul. Since then, he has covered several stories on migrant trafficking in Afghanistan and Pakistan for various national and international media outlets.

35 | PAUL POLMAN CEO

Unilever

Paul Polman has served as the CEO of Unilever since January 2009. Under his leadership, Unilever has implemented a vision to fully decouple its growth from overall environmental footprint and increase its positive social impact through the Unilever Sustainable Living Plan. He has also guided the company in its efforts to fight human trafficking within its supply chain as a matter of priority. Mr. Polman is the Chair of the World Business Council for Sustainable Development.

34 | MARTINA VANDENBERG FOUNDER AND PRESIDENT

The Human Trafficking Pro Bono Legal Center

Martina E. Vandenberg is the Founder and President of the Human Trafficking Pro Bono Legal Center, which she established in 2012 with support from the Open Society Foundations

36 | KATHLEEN SHAVER DIRECTOR OF SUPPLY CHAIN SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Apple

As Director of Supply Chain Social Responsibility at Apple, Kathleen Shaver specializes in anti-human trafficking efforts. She is responsible for maintaining and enhancing Apple's regulatory compliance programs. In her former role as Director of Sustainability, Risk, Compliance and Security at Cisco, she helped craft the company's Statement on the Prevention of Slavery and Human Trafficking.

TOP 100 Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

37 | BRENT WILTON DIRECTOR OF GLOBAL WORKPLACE RIGHTS

Coca-Cola Company

Brent Wilton is the Director of Global Workplace Rights for the Coca-Cola Company. There, he ensures the company always abides by its Human Rights Policy and Supplier Guiding Principles, particularly surrounding anti-trafficking efforts. Formerly, he was the Secretary General of the International Organization of Employers, a network of businesses and employer organizations that focus on labor standards and human rights.

Initiative, works to help companies confront human trafficking in supply chains. She is the principal author of the report "Best Practices in Ethical Recruitment of Migrant Workers", and she has conducted extensive field research around the world, meeting personally with migrant workers and recruiters to develop guidelines for responsible employment practices.

Forties

38 | GENEVIEVE LEBARON SENIOR LECTURER

University of Sheffield

Dr. Genevieve LeBaron is a Senior Lecturer at the University of Sheffield and Chair of the Modern Slavery Working Group at Yale University. She is a member of the Slavery & Trafficking Risk Template Development Committee, and Co-Founder and Editor of openDemocracy.net's "Beyond Trafficking and Slavery" section, a website that brings together stakeholders seeking to tackle modern slavery's root causes. Dr. LeBaron's research on forced labor has been profiled widely in the media, including Forbes, Fortune Magazine, The Economist and The Guardian.

40 | BOOM MOSBY FOUNDER AND DIRECTOR

HUG Project

Boom Mosby is Founder and Director of the HUG Project, a Thailand-based organization that aims to protect and restore children from human trafficking, exploitation and abuse. The HUG Projects offers educational tools, protection and support services for survivors. Ms. Mosby has also spoken at TEDx Chiang Mai on the topic of her anti-trafficking efforts in Thailand.

39 | VALENTINA GURNEY ASSOCIATE PROGRAM DIRECTOR

Interfaith Center on Corporate Responsibility

Valentina Gurney, Associate Program Director at the Interfaith Center on Corporate Responsibility and coordinator of the No Fees Recruitment

41 | STEVE MARTIN CEO

Love146

After a short stint making movies and documentaries, Steve Martin turned his attention toward the injustices faced by his fellow man around the world. Mr. Martin now serves as CEO of Love146, an organization that works toward the abolition of child trafficking and exploitation through prevention education, professional training and survivor care.

TOP 100 Conflict Mineral Influence Leaders

42 | KATIA KOLOMYITSEVA RESPECT PROGRAM GLOBAL MANAGER Danone

Through Danone's RESPECT program, direct suppliers undergo a rigorous process of assessment of their social, environmental and ethical performance that increases reliability of the supply chain, conserves the planet's natural resources and protects the people who work for and with the company. Combating modern slavery and human rights violations is at the forefront of this initiative. Ms. Kolomyitseva, who leads the program, has proven her commitment to human rights around the world through her volunteer work in India and Asia.

43 | CAROLINE ROBINSON POLICY DIRECTOR Focus on Labour Exploitation (FLEX)

Caroline Robinson is the Policy Director of Focus on Labour Exploitation, also known as FLEX. With more than 10 years of experience in the human trafficking research and policy space, Ms. Robinson has dealt extensively with policy engagement and advocacy strategies on labor exploitation globally. Prior to her role at FLEX, Ms. Robinson worked at the Global Alliance Against Traffic in Women, facilitating the engagement of grassroots organizations in international advocacy on trafficking.

44 | BETH TIGER CO-FOUNDER AND EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR Durga Tree International

In her role as Co-Founder and Executive Director of Durga Tree International, Beth Tiger works toward ending modern slavery. Ms. Tiger is a trained life coach and public speaker, and brings empathy and compassion to the survivors and partner organizations with whom she works.

45 | TESSA COUTURE DATA ANALYST Polaris

Tessa Couture is a Data Analyst with Polaris, where she analyzes data from the National Human Trafficking Resource Center (NHRTC) hotline and the BeFree Textline operated by Polaris. She is the author of two reports about human trafficking: "More Than Drinks For Sale: Exposing Sex Trafficking in U.S. Cantinas and Bars" and "Knocking at Your Door: Labor Trafficking on Traveling Sales Crews."

46 | KILIAN MOOTE PROJECT DIRECTOR KnowTheChain

Kilian Moote is the Project Director at KnowTheChain, a resource that helps businesses understand their legal obligations surrounding product sourcing and supply chain disclosures on human trafficking. Mr. Moote has led innovative workshops, created guidance documents for governments, and lectured on the topic of sustainable supply chain management at the University of Sydney and the University of San Francisco. Additionally, he served as Vice President of Programs for the Not for Sale Initiative, which enhanced the livelihoods of those vulnerable to human trafficking in six countries.

TOP 100 Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

47 | MAHESH BHAGWAT COMMISSIONER

Rachakonda Police Commissionerate

Mahesh Bhagwat, who currently serves as Commissioner of Police of Rachakonda, a police commissionerate in India's Telangana state, has been fighting human trafficking for the last 13 years. He has participated in anti-trafficking operations that have removed hundreds of survivors from situations of trafficking and, with the help of other government departments and civil society organizations, has ensured their placement in support programs.

48 | AURORA ALIFANO PROJECT DIRECTOR, TRACEABILITY, IUU AND HUMAN RIGHTS

FishWise

As Project Director of Traceability, IUU and Human Rights at FishWise, Aurora Alifano's work centres around the social elements of sustainability in the seafood industry, but all intersects with its economic and environmental aspects. In this role, Ms. Alifano leads multi-stakeholder initiatives that work to improve business practices that protect human and labor rights within the industry by tracing products back to their sources. Previously, she held positions in the fields of marine science and conservation, which inform and underpin her current work.

49 | MALIKA SAADA SAAR CO-FOUNDER AND FORMER DIRECTOR

Rebecca Project for Human Rights

Malika Saada Saar is a Washington-based advocate for women's rights and currently holds the role of Senior Counsel on Civil and Human Rights at Google. She is also the co-founder and former director of the Rebecca Project for Human Rights. At the Rebecca Project, Ms. Saada Saar led the effort to shut down Craigslist ads that facilitated the trafficking of children for sex and successfully advocated for millions in federal funding for treatment and services for at-risk families.

Fifties

50 | ALLISON LEE CO-FOUNDER AND SECRETARY GENERAL

Yilan Migrant Fishermen Union

Allison Lee is Co-Founder and Secretary General of the Yilan Migrant Fishermen Union, Taiwan's first labor union composed of and led by foreign workers, and is a leading voice in demanding stronger protections for fishing crew members and accountability for human traffickers. Ms. Lee established the union after working for 16 years for Taiwan NGOs focused on labor rights issues and handling labor disputes for four years at the municipal level as an employee of Taipei's Labor Affairs Bureau.

51 | PETER MCALLISTER EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Ethical Trading Initiative

Peter McAllister has been engaged in international development and rights-based initiatives around the globe for more than 20 years, and currently serves as the Executive Director for the Ethical Trading Initiative (ETI). Prior to joining the ETI, he spent seven years as the Executive Director for the Geneva-based International Cocoa Initiative (ICI), which brings together global companies involved in cocoa and chocolate, including trade unions and NGOs, to eliminate the worst forms of child labor and forced labor from the international cocoa industry.

TOP 100 Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

52 | ANDREW WALLIS FOUNDER AND CEO

Unseen

Andrew Wallis is the Founder and CEO of Unseen, a multi-award winning charity that aims to eradicate slavery and trafficking. He is the Chairman of the Working Group for the Centre for Social Justice's landmark report "It Happens Here: Equipping the United Kingdom to fight modern slavery", which offered a comprehensive road map for government, statutory authorities and businesses to eradicate slavery in the UK, and which is now acknowledged as the catalyst for the UK's Modern Slavery Act.

53 | PHIL BLOOMER EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Business & Human Rights Resource Centre

In September 2013, Phil Bloomer became the Executive Director of the Business & Human Rights Resource Centre, which has taken a leadership role in creating the UK Modern Slavery Registry. Based at the centre's London headquarters, Mr. Bloomer is responsible for growing the organization's efforts to increase corporate transparency in the field of business and human rights, with a key focus on human trafficking and modern slavery in global supply chains. His previous roles include Director of Campaigns and Policy at Oxfam Great Britain and Head of Advocacy at Oxfam International for the Make Trade Fair campaign.

54 | ANDREA POWELL CO-FOUNDER AND EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

FAIR Girls

Andrea Powell is Co-Founder and Executive Director of FAIR Girls (Free, Aware, Inspired, Restored), a Washington, D.C.-based nonprofit that assists survivors of human trafficking through education and empowerment. She serves as FAIR Girls' chief liaison to the D.C. Anti-Trafficking Task Force and has trained hundreds of law enforcement personnel, social workers and others how to identify and assist survivors of sex and forced labor trafficking. She is also an adjunct professor at the Elliott School of International Affairs at George Washington University.

55 | MARIA ODOM FORMER CITIZENSHIP AND IMMIGRATION SERVICES OMBUDSMAN

U.S. Department of Homeland Security

Maria Odom is an experienced attorney, organizational change agent and senior leader who has advocated for immigrants and common-sense immigration policies for the past 20 years. During her four years serving as Citizenship and Immigration Services Ombudsman for the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, Ms. Odom also served as the Chair of the DHS Blue Campaign, the Department's human trafficking prevention program, which included nationwide training of law enforcement and a public awareness campaign.

TOP 100 Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

56 | NICK GRONO CEO

Freedom Fund

Nick Grono is the CEO of the Freedom Fund, the world's first private donor fund dedicated to identifying and investing in the most promising frontline efforts to end modern slavery. He is also the Co-Chair of the Jox Cox Foundation and a board member of Girls Not Brides, a global partnership to end child marriage. Mr. Grono, who is trained as a lawyer, previously held a senior position at the International Crisis Group, the world's leading conflict resolution NGO.

sexual exploitation and human trafficking. She leverages a decade's worth of business development experience, engineering management and passion for shared value to drive technology solutions to improve the lives of at-risk women and children.

59 | SHEILA DEWS-JOHNSON DIRECTOR, SUPPLIER DIVERSITY & SUPPLIER SUSTAINABILITY

McCormick & Company, Inc.

McCormick & Company, Inc., a global manufacturer of spices, herbs, and flavorings for commercial and industrial markets, was ranked number 14 in the 2017 Global 100 Most Sustainable Corporations Index and number one in the food products industry. As the Director of Supplier Diversity & Supplier Sustainability, Sheila leads the charge in combating modern slavery and human trafficking in McCormick & Company's supply chain.

57 | AINSLEY STINSON FORMER REGIONAL PROGRAMME ADVISOR OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING AND MIGRANT SMUGGLING

UN Office on Drugs and Crime

Ainsley Stinson is the former Regional Programme Advisor of Human Trafficking and Migrant Smuggling for the UN Office on Drugs and Crime, where she evaluated data to inform governments about possible security threats related to human trafficking. Previously, Ms. Stinson worked as a Counter Human Trafficking and Migrant Smuggling Adviser for the Thailand Institute of Justice.

60 | JACQUELINE FULLER VICE PRESIDENT, GOOGLE.ORG

Google

Jacqueline Fuller is the Vice President of Google.org, a data-driven, human-focused philanthropy movement powered by Google. Her team invests more than $200 million yearly to support innovative nonprofits that are using technology to create more opportunities for everyone to learn, succeed and be heard. Ms. Fuller joined Google in 2007 and manages a global team overseeing Google's philanthropic work, employee giving and volunteering and product donations, having supported anti-human trafficking efforts for a number of years.

58 | LISA THEE DIRECTOR, INTEL INSIDE, SAFER CHILDREN OUTSIDE

Intel

As the Director of the Intel Inside, Safer Children Outside program, Lisa Thee is responsible for developing technical solutions to reduce child

Sixties

61 | ANN WAGNER
U.S. REPRESENTATIVE
FOR MISSOURI'S 2ND
CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT
U.S. Congress

With over 25 years of experience in the private sector, local grassroots organization and politics, Ann Wagner currently serves as the incumbent U.S. Representative for Missouri's 2nd congressional district. In January 2017, Congresswoman Wagner, along with Congresswoman Tulsi Gabbard (D-HI) and Congressman Jim Sensenbrenner (R-WI), introduced the Trafficking Survivors Relief Act, which would allow survivors of human trafficking to petition courts to have their criminal records cleared.

62 | BEATE ANDREES
CHIEF, FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES
AND RIGHTS AT WORK BRANCH
International Labour Organization

Based in Switzerland, Beate Andrees is the Chief of the Fundamental Principles and Rights at Work Branch of the International Labour Organization's (ILO) Governance and Tripartism Department. The Branch focuses on policy development, carries out research and provides technical advisory services on issues including child labor, forced labor, non-discrimination, freedom of association and collective bargaining.

63 | RICH MCARDLE
PRESIDENT
UPS Freight

Rich McArdle has been the President of UPS Freight since January 2016. Under his leadership, UPS has implemented training and reporting programs, including Truckers Against Trafficking, to combat the illegal movement of humans within the trucking industry. Upon announcing the deal, Mr. McArdle said, "UPS Freight is in a unique position to help identify traffickers and trafficking survivors by educating our drivers and management on this epidemic impacting our local communities."

64 | LYDIA HULTQUIST
TRADE COMPLIANCE ASSOCIATE
Marvell Semiconductor

With more than 20 years of supply chain experience, Lydia Hultquist has worked with industry-leading companies to develop programs that reduce costs, improve production and ensure compliance with strict regulations. She is an expert in supply chain, procurement, materials management and new program implementation and has a particular focus on human trafficking. She also spearheaded the Silicon Valley Conflict Minerals and Human Trafficking Forum.

65 | REETA ROY
PRESIDENT AND CEO
Mastercard Foundation

Reeta Roy is President and CEO of the Mastercard Foundation, a leading philanthropic organization focused on financial inclusion, skills training and education in Africa. Prior to joining the Foundation, Ms. Roy held various leadership positions in the private sector working on global health issues. In June 2017, she received an honorary Doctorate from McGill University for her significant contribution to the development of education opportunities for African youth and their families.

TOP 100 Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

Documentary at the Columbia Gorge International Film Festival. Formerly, she served as the public awareness chair for Soroptimist International Northwestern Region, an organization dedicated to bettering the lives of women and girls in local communities.

66 | MELYSA SPERBER DIRECTOR OF POLICY AND GOVERNMENT RELATIONS, ALLIANCE TO END SLAVERY & TRAFFICKING

Humanity United

As Director of Policy and Government Relations at Humanity United's Alliance to End Slavery & Trafficking (ATEST), Melysa Sperber coordinates the organization's efforts to end all forms of human trafficking and modern slavery in the U.S. and overseas. With a background in law and public policy, Ms. Sperber previously served as Director of Human Rights at Vital Voices Global Partnership, where she dealt with issues involving violence against women, human trafficking and sexual violence.

67 | MICHELLE BART CO-FOUNDER AND PRESIDENT National Women's Coalition Against Violence and Exploitation

Michelle Bart is the Co-Founder and President of the National Women's Coalition Against Violence & Exploitation. Ms. Bart is also the producer of a full-length documentary, "Your American Teen", which won Best Feature Local

68 | JUDY GEARHART EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

International Labor Rights Forum

Judy Gearhart has served as the Executive Director of the International Labor Rights Forum for over six years. Ms. Gearhart is also an adjunct professor at Columbia University's School for International and Public Affairs, with a particular focus on human rights and diplomacy. Previously, she coordinated legal research and training programs for workers and trade unions at Social Accountability International, and has held positions at the International Labour Organization and UNICEF.

69 | JEREMY SCHWARTZ CHAIRMAN AND CEO

The Body Shop

Jeremy Schwartz is Chairman and CEO of The Body Shop, a natural beauty brand known for its commitment to ethical operations. The company focuses on a wide range of philanthropic and sustainable business practices, notably calling out human trafficking as a necessary focus in corporate social responsibility, and has run numerous campaigns to raise awareness about human trafficking.

Seventies

70 | MARIE APOSTOL FOUNDER AND CEO

FAIR Hiring Initiative

As Founder and CEO of the FAIR Hiring Initiative, Marie Apostol works to promote ethical recruitment practices and connect job seekers with socially-responsible employers. In her former role at Verité, she led worldwide recruitment-related supply chain initiatives and developed programs to help some of the world's largest brands across various industries combat issues of child labor and human trafficking.

71 | YANI MONTANEZ DIRECTOR OF SOCIAL COMPLIANCE

Perry Ellis International

Accountability and integrity are core values at Perry Ellis International, a global sportswear and casual wear company, and those values extend to their Social Compliance Vendor Code of Conduct. Yani Montanez is responsible for enforcing the Code and putting these commitments into practice. The Code places a strong focus on labor and human rights, holding Perry Ellis suppliers accountable for eradicating modern slavery and human trafficking in their supply chains.

72 | KRISTEN SULLIVAN PARTNER

Deloitte & Touche, LLC

Kristen Sullivan leads Deloitte & Touche LLP and Deloitte Touche Tohmatus Limited's Sustainability Risk Advisory and Assurance services, including their Supply Chain Social Compliance services. She acts as an advisor to the Social Responsibility Alliance and its industry template, the Slavery & Trafficking Risk Template, offering her unique insights into the needs of companies and suppliers working to improve their human trafficking and slavery programs.

73 | SARAH CARPENTER SENIOR BUSINESS & HUMAN RIGHTS ANALYST

Assent Compliance

Sarah Carpenter works closely with Fortune 500 companies to advise them on best practices to develop, implement and execute on their human trafficking and modern slavery compliance programs. She is a frequently-requested guest speaker at industry events for her expertise and hands-on experience in the field.

74 | LEONARDO SAKAMOTO JOURNALIST

Repórter Brasil

Leonardo Sakamoto is a Brazilian journalist with an unwavering commitment to the protection of fundamental freedoms in Brazil. In 2001, he established Repórter Brasil, an NGO dedicated to monitoring and combating forced labor in Brazil. Repórter Brasil's investigative journalism has helped leaders in the public and private sectors, as well as in civil society, use research and educational programs as tools to combat human trafficking, especially forced labor.

TOP 100 Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

75 | SAIMA MOHSIN INTERNATIONAL CORRESPONDENT CNN

Saima Mohsin is an International Correspondent for CNN based in Bangkok, Thailand. Ms. Mohsin has covered some of the world's most significant stories, including the killing of Osama Bin Laden, the Brussels attacks and the protests and subsequent military coup in Thailand. She also covered the plight of the Thai transgender community during military conscription and conducted a detailed investigation into human trafficking in the fishing industry in Southeast Asia for CNN's notable series The Freedom Project.

76 | AMINA OUFROUKHI JUDGE Moroccan Ministry of Justice

Amina Oufroukhi is a judge with the Moroccan Ministry of Justice's Directorate of Criminal Affairs and Pardons, which is responsible for women's and children's issues, vulnerable populations and human trafficking. In 2016, Judge Oufroukhi helped draft and promote the passage of Morocco's anti-trafficking law and has been a driving force within the government to develop an implementation plan to ensure the protection of survivors and the appropriate punishment of perpetrators.

77 | RAY THOMPSON FORMER SENIOR MANAGER AND ETHICS OFFICER Lockheed Martin

As former Senior Manager and Ethics Officer at Lockheed Martin, Ray Thompson was tasked with initiating and communicating the company's focused approach to social responsibility. In his role, Mr. Thompson promoted the highest standards of ethical conduct and practices across the company. Lockheed Martin has also implemented an Ethics Supplier Mentoring Program focusing on, among other things, human trafficking within the industry.

78 | JOHN MORRISON CEO Institute for Human Rights and Business

John Morrison has served as CEO of the Institute for Human Rights and Business for more than eight years. He has worked extensively with companies and think tanks on issues surrounding corporate responsibility and human rights, and is also the author of The Social License. Mr. Morrison led the Business Leaders Initiative on Human Rights from 2003 to 2009 and has also worked for a number of civil society and governmental organizations on issues of migration, human trafficking and forced labor.

79 | BEN COOLEY CO-FOUNDER AND CEO Hope for Justice U.S.

Ben Cooley is the Co-Founder and CEO of Hope for Justice, an international anti-trafficking organization working to bring an end to modern slavery by rescuing survivors, restoring lives and reforming society. Hope for Justice is actively working across three continents to change lives and end slavery by collaborating with partner organizations, law enforcement, and government.

TOP 100 Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

Eighties

80 | KLARA SKRIVANKOVA PROGRAM MANAGER, UK AND EUROPE

Anti-Slavery International

Klara Skrivankova is the Program Manager for the UK and Europe at Anti-Slavery International. Ms. Skrivankova specializes in business accountability, migrant rights, labor rights, anti-trafficking responses and addressing forced labor in supply chains. Throughout her impressive career, she has held various advisory posts at the UN, and within the EU and the Council of Europe. She is also a Program Advisor to the Joseph Rowntree Foundation and a Co-Founder of the UK Trafficking Law and Policy Forum.

81 | LOLA YOUNG BARONESS OF HORNSEY

UK Parliament

With a background in education and social work, Lola Young, Baroness of Hornsey, has always taken an interest in ethical and social issues, particularly with regards to trade. In 2016, she sponsored a private members' bill in the UK House of Lords that would have strengthened the UK Modern Slavery Act by requiring organizations to include a statement on human trafficking in their annual reports.

82 | ED BASTIAN CEO

Delta Air Lines

As CEO of Delta Air Lines, Ed Bastian recognizes that human trafficking is a problem the airline industry must address. Delta was the first airline to sign the ECPAT International Code of Conduct, and more than 54,000 Delta employees have taken human trafficking training. In March 2017, Mr. Bastian announced a partnership with Polaris, a leader in the fight against human trafficking, which enables SkyMiles members to donate points to help survivors return home and reunite with family.

83 | GENETHA GRAY ANALYTICS RESEARCH SCIENTISTS

Intel

Genetha Gray holds a Ph.D. in Computational & Applied Mathematics from Rice University, and currently serves as an Analytics Research Scientist at Intel, where she is a leading member of a cross-disciplinary team that uses technology to combat human trafficking across the globe. Her work has also assisted the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children.

84 | BRADLEY MYLES EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR AND CEO

Polaris

Bradley Myles is the Executive Director and CEO of Polaris, a leading organization in the fight to eradicate human trafficking and help survivors. Over the past 10 years, he has worked to combat human trafficking and modern slavery on a global scale. His early efforts focused on directly serving survivors, researching local human trafficking markets and helping to build Washington, D.C.'s first-ever Human Trafficking Task Force.

TOP 100 Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

85 | RITU VAIDYA DIRECTOR OF SUPPLY CHAIN RESPONSIBILITY

Texas Instruments

As Director of Supply Chain Responsibility at Texas Instruments, Ritu Vaidya is the key cog in the company's international supply chain when it comes to responsible sourcing and regulatory requirements. She is tasked with ensuring enforcement of the company's code of conduct, focusing specifically on conflict minerals and human trafficking.

86 | LETTY ASHWORTH DIRECTOR OF GLOBAL DIVERSITY

Delta Air Lines

Letty Ashworth is the Director of Global Diversity for Delta Air Lines. In leading Delta's efforts to combat human trafficking, she has become a sought-after speaker on this topic and has given testimony to the House Committee on Foreign Affairs in support of Delta's commitment to addressing the issue. In addition to her work with Delta, Ms. Ashworth serves on the Board of the Global Business Coalition Against Human Trafficking and the McCain Institute Human Trafficking Advisory Board.

87 | BOB CORKER CHAIRMAN OF THE FOREIGN RELATIONS COMMITTEE

U.S. Senate

Bob Corker served as Tennessee's Commissioner of Finance and Mayor of Chattanooga before being elected to the U.S. Senate in 2006. He is now serving his second term in the U.S. Senate as Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee and is an active member of the Banking Committee and the Budget Committee. In December 2016, authorization for the End Modern Slavery Initiative, a bipartisan effort led by Corker, passed in The National Defense Authorization Act of 2017.

88 | MICHAEL KEENAN MINISTER FOR JUSTICE

Australian House of Representatives

Michael Keenan is Australia's Minister for Justice. In 2017, he spearheaded the government's efforts to bring transparency and accountability to business practices in the supply chain. The Modern Slavery in Supply Chains Reporting Requirement is part of the government's National Action Plan to Combat Human Trafficking and Slavery 2015-19, and, if passed, it will require large corporations to provide annual statements detailing how they are addressing forced labor and related issues.

TOP 100 Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

89 | TOM GLASER PRESIDENT OF THE SUPPLY CHAIN VF Corporation

Tom Glaser is the President of the Supply Chain at VF Corporation, a publicly-traded apparel company with operations across the globe. With Mr. Glaser at the helm, the company addressed factory and working conditions within its supply chain, focusing on traceability of product materials, worker safety and environmental stewardship. As a result, the company is known for its dedication to social responsibility and its role in the fight against human trafficking.

91 | NIGEL ROBERTS VICE PRESIDENT OF GLOBAL ASSOCIATIONS LexisNexis

As the Vice President of Global Associations at LexisNexis, Nigel Roberts is tasked with managing its relationships with leading international legal associations. In recent years, his work with the International Bar Association, the Global Business Coalition Against Human Trafficking and other organizations has included efforts to help combat human trafficking and to advance the rule of law across the globe. He also serves as a Court Appointed Special Advocate for Children of New Hampshire.

Nineties

90 | STEPHEN HANNON BOARD MEMBER Laboratory to Combat Human Trafficking

Stephen Hannon is the President of the LENA Research Foundation, an organization whose mission is to accelerate language development to improve the cognitive, social and emotional health of children from birth to age five. At present, Mr. Hannon serves on the Board of Directors for the Laboratory to Combat Human Trafficking, which works to end human trafficking by training first responders, educating the public and conducting research.

92 | PAUL GERRARD GROUP POLICY AND CAMPAIGNS DIRECTOR The Co-op

Paul Gerrard currently serves as Group Policy and Campaigns Director for The Co-op, one of the world's largest consumer co-operatives, and works to align group-wide policies with The Co-op's purpose. Mr. Gerrard is responsible for developing, maintaining and implementing the ethical and sustainability policies, and for developing and executing campaigns for change within The Co-op.

TOP 100 Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

93 | KIMO KIPPEN VICE PRESIDENT FOR GLOBAL WORKFORCE INITIATIVES

Hilton Worldwide

In his role as Vice President for Global Workforce Initiatives at Hilton Worldwide, Kimo Kippen has been the company's point man for developing anti-human trafficking guidelines. Over the years, he has served on several boards, helping corporate, academic and civic organizations drive progressive change. Recently, Mr. Kippen supported Hilton's "Travel with Purpose" initiative, which gives employees the training they need to join the fight against child trafficking.

that is also a member of the Slavery & Trafficking Risk Template Development Committee. In this position, Mr. Kirby gathers crucial information in pursuit of compliance with key human rights related regulations, including the Dodd-Frank Act, the California Transparency in Supply Chains Act and the UK Modern Slavery Act.

96 | STEPHEN DREYER FOREIGN AFFAIRS OFFICER

U.S. Department of State

Stephen Dreyer is a Foreign Affairs Officer at the U.S. Department of State, Office to Monitor and Combat Trafficking in Persons, where he applies his expertise on human trafficking and advises senior staff. In this role, he works with various Task Force agencies and the White House to develop and enforce anti-trafficking policy and implement mandates under the Trafficking Victims Protection Act.

94 | DIRK VANDE BEEK SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF CORPORATE AND GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS

Travelport

Dirk Vande Beek is Senior Vice President of Corporate and Government Affairs at Travelport, where he directs the company's Corporate Social Responsibility and philanthropic programs and projects. He is currently a Board member of the Global Business Coalition Against Human Trafficking, which harnesses the power of the business community to combat human trafficking.

97 | DAWN CONWAY PRESIDENT

Boost Technologies

Dawn Conway joined Schumsky and Boost Rewards as President in April 2016. Prior to this, she served as COO at Cision, where she joined the Board of Directors at the Global Business Coalition Against Human Trafficking. Dawn has held key management positions within sales, marketing, content licensing, business development and corporate responsibility. She is an attorney and a current member of the District of Columbia Court of Appeals, American Bar Association and the National Association of Women Lawyers.

95 | MATTHEW KIRBY SENIOR PROCUREMENT ADMINISTRATOR

Cubic Corporation

Based in Tullahoma, Tennessee, Matthew Kirby currently serves as Senior Procurement Administrator for the Cubic Corporation, a global information technology and services company

TOP 100 Human Trafficking & Slavery Influence Leaders

98 | CARLOS ALVARADO

PROGRAM MANAGER,
SUPPLY CHAIN GRC

Baker Hughes

Carlos Alvarado manages all program activities related to conflict minerals, modern slavery, due diligence practices and disclosures at Baker Hughes. He is an active member of the Slavery & Trafficking Risk Template Development Committee, and member of the Social Responsibility Alliance.

99 | ELEANOR SMITH

VICE PRESIDENT,
CORPORATE RESPONSIBILITY
AND SUSTAINABILITY

Cobham

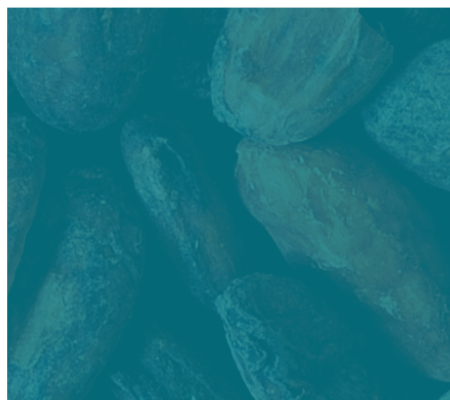

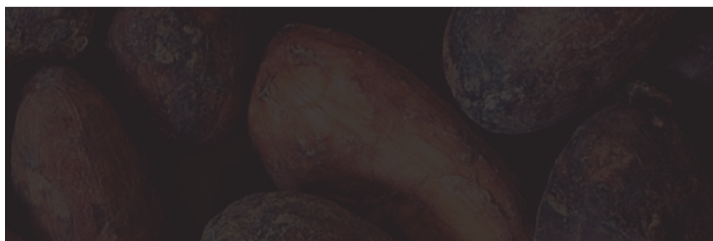

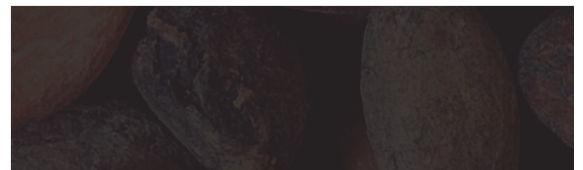

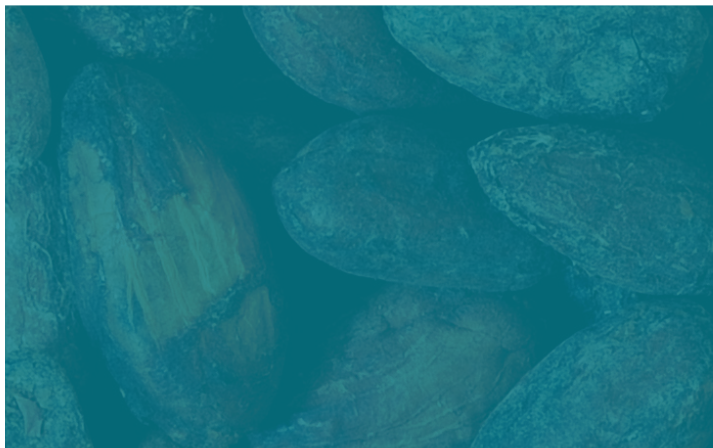

Eleanor Smith is Vice President of Corporate Responsibility and Sustainability at Cobham, a British manufacturing company. With experience in the oil and gas, and aerospace and defense sectors, Ms. Smith has over 10 years of knowledge in areas including risk assessment and sustainability project management. In her current role at Cobham, she leads the development and implementation of the company's corporate responsibility and sustainability strategy, and ensures its integration into key business functions.

100 | JACK BEDELL

VICE PRESIDENT,
GLOBAL COMPLIANCE

STERIS

Jack Bedell was recently tasked with building the STERIS Global Compliance Department, for which he now holds the role of Vice President. Taking an educate-first approach, Mr. Bedell and his team have committed to implementing a strong modern slavery and human trafficking program. In the company's own words, it "strongly oppose[s] all forms of slavery, servitude, forced labor and human trafficking."

Assent

525 Coventry Rd
Ottawa, ON K1K 2C5
Canada

Toll Free: 1 866 964 6931
Fax: 1 866 391 5954
info@assentcompliance.com
assentcompliance.com